

Tyler Dos Santos-Tam is a member of the Honolulu City Council, representing the Downtown Honolulu area, and was elected to this role in 2022. He has served as the Chair of the Council's Transportation Committee, Executive Matters and Legal Affairs Committee, Budget Committee, and Government Efficiency and Customer Services Committee. He has been a prolific and effective legislator, sponsoring and passing key legislation on public health, transportation, support for small businesses, reducing crime, and more.

He previously served as Chairman of the Democratic Party of Hawai'i from 2020-2022. Prior to that, he was the Executive Director of the Hawai'i Construction Alliance, the organization which represents the state's 15,000-member strong Carpenters, Laborers, Cement Masons, Bricklayers, and Operating Engineers unions. In this unique role, he brought together representatives from these unions to promote cooperation, collaboration, and coordination within Hawai'i's construction industry.

Tyler currently also serves as the Honorary Consul for Portugal in Hawaii. In this role, he works to promote trade, tourism, and the historical and cultural relationships between Portugal and Hawai'i.

He has served on numerous nonprofit boards, was a member of the 2014 Class of the Pacific Century Fellows. He was recognized as one of Pacific Business News' "40 Under Forty" for his work in both the business and advocacy community.

Tyler is a graduate of Punahou School and Yale University.
